

Case Type	Court With Jurisdiction	Hearing to Determine Whether to Try Juvenile as Adult?	Hearing to Determine Whether to Sentence Juvenile as Adult?	Authority to Sentence While Juvenile on Probation?	Authority to Sentence at Final Review Hearing?*
"Prosecutor-Designated" Cases	Family Division	No (Specified Juvenile Violation must be alleged)	Yes	Yes, and revocation is mandatory if juvenile is adjudicated or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor punishable by more than one year imprisonment.	Yes
"Court-Designated" Cases	Family Division	Yes (any felony or misdemeanor may be alleged)	Yes, but juvenile may not be committed to the Department of Corrections.	Yes, and revocation is mandatory if juvenile is adjudicated or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor punishable by more than one year imprisonment.  Juvenile may be committed to Department of Corrections.	Yes, and juvenile may be committed to Department of Corrections.
"Automatic" or Prosecutorial Waiver	Criminal Division	No (Specified Juvenile Violation must be alleged)	No, for 12 very serious Specified Juvenile Violations  Yes, for remainder of Specified Juvenile Violations	Yes, and revocation is mandatory if juvenile is adjudicated or convicted of a felony or misdemeanor punishable by more than one year imprisonment.	Yes
"Traditional" or Judicial Waiver	Family Division prior to waiver; Criminal Division after waiver	Yes, two-phase hearing  If juvenile was previously subject to waiver, only probable cause phase need be held	No, adult sentence mandatory	Yes, under rules applicable to adults	N/A

*Only for offenses committed after January 1, 1997. See People v Valentin, 457 Mich 1, 7, n 7 (1998).

